Areas that Could become of Importance for Biodiversity (ACIB)

People led – county's aspirations & co-benefits

Spatial priorities mapping tool (May-July)

Health and access workshop (July)

Deliverability led – building on previous action & willing landowners Identification and mapping of landowners interested in delivering potential measures (summer)

Action for nature mapping tool (February-July)

Evidence & expert led

– where action is

most needed, will

deliver greatest
benefits & is feasible

Data layers held by conservation and other NGOs, agencies and bodies, LPAs etc of their priority areas for Kent.

Other mapping evidence and refinement tools (developed by DEMTAG)

People led – county's aspirations & co-benefits

Online availability of initial draft ACIB – opportunity to comment (September)

Co-benefits workshop – access, health and other co-benefits (September)

Initial → draft

ACIB

Deliverability led – building on previous action & willing landowners Direct discussion on initial draft ACIB with relevant landowners (September)

Direct discussion on initial draft ACIB with local planning authorities

(September)

Evidence & expert led

– where action is

most needed, will

deliver greatest
benefits & is feasible

Priority areas workshop(s) to ground-truth initial draft ACIB
(September)

Draft ACIB

Developing the County's Local Nature Recovery Strategy